Mohare Hill

In the well known Annapurna area there are still pristine jewels available, like Mohare Hill, a hill of a considerable 3300 meters. It is a light trekking partly on unpaved trails, passing through dense woods and then along steep hill edges. A journey that leads to the only (Tibetan) community lodge which Mohare has to offer. Here you will be warmly welcomed and you can enjoy breathtaking views all round where you feel you really can touch the Himalayas. This trek is complemented by an extensive sightseeing of Kathmandu, its temples and monuments, and Pokhara, the most picturesque city of Nepal.

Day 1: Arrival in Kathmandu, o/n in a hotel + D

Arrival at the Tribhuvan International airport in Nepal. You will be welcomed by our teammember and transported to your hotel in Thamel where in the evening we invite you to our traditional Nepali welcome dinner with live music and local dishes and drinks.

Day 2/3: Sightseeing in Kathmandu valley, o/n in a hotel + B

Early rise for a breakfast in the hotel after which it's time to visit Pashupatinath, the most venerated Hindu temple of Nepal and Boudanath, the biggest Buddhist stupa of the world. It really impresses all foreign tourists. In the afternoon we visit Durbar Square in the center of Kathmandu with its impressive monuments.

On the second day of the Kathmandu valley sightseeing the trip continues with a visit to the famous, former King cities of Bhaktapur and Patan -the principalities of Kathmandu valley. You will visit old royal palaces, temples, stupas, and monasteries and will see lots of nice intricate wood and stone works. In the late afternoon we return to your hotel in Kathmandu,

Day 04: This morning you will drive to Pokhara (200km), o/n in a hotel +B

Early we will be on the route where will see more of the amazing countryside of Nepal that offers greeneries, rivers, villages, farms and beautiful mountain sceneries. In the afternoon, we reach Pokhara, the second largest city. The city is famous for its magnificent views of Dhaulagiri, Manaslu, Machhapuchhare, the five peaks of Annapurna. It is the starting point for all the adventurous trekkings. You will have time to visit the enchanting lake Fewa and dine in one of the hundreds of local and international restaurants.

Optional: an 3 hours exiting rafting tour in the Trisuli river that splits the long drive, just bring an extra towel and either extra clothes or swimming suit. No experience needed!

Day 05: Drive to Galeshwor Temple (3/4hrs) and trek to Banskharka (2/3 hrs) , o/n in lodge +B/L/D

Today we start our beautiful trekking with a visit to the Galeshwor Temple that stands on a single rock and is dedicated to the Hindu God, Lord Shiva. We then walk to Banskharka following the classic Annapurna trail. Banskharka is a picturesque village inhabited by the Magar community of Nepal. The village is surrounded by beautiful rhododendron forests and with elegant water streams flowing through it. The village has lived for hundreds of years on the production of mandarins, oranges and honey, which you might learn about and taste in your visit. We stay in a community managed lodge and enjoy the local food.

Day 06: Trek to Dandakateri (5/6hrs), o/n in lodge +B/L/D

We embark upon a half-day trek to Dandakateri today and enjoy the beautiful Annapurna and Dhaulagiri ranges which are both among the tallest Himalayan Mountains. Along with enjoying the incredible mountain vistas we also interact with the locals of the area.

Day 07: Trek to Nagi village (2/3hrs, 2250m) o/n in lodge +B/L/D

Today we have two route choices today. We could either follow a trail that passes through the Banmare village or we walk in the dense high altitude pine and rhododendron forests. If we follow the first route we will be surrounded by beautiful hill landscape with bench terraces greeting us in every bend. However, if we follow the second trail, we might get lucky and spot some wild deer and varieties of birds and butterflies all along the way. Either way, we will reach Nagi village late in the afternoon where we will spend the night.
